ENT disorders:
Acute or chronic, or allergic coryza, with nasal obstruction, painful at the root of the nose, sensation of heaviness at the root of the nose, dryness of the mucosa, retrosternal discharge. Dry cough, irritant, unremitting, mainly at night with pains in the frontal sinuses when breathing in.

Improvement:
– from nasal discharge.